The first and second training classes in 1949 completed short courses in "Development of Society" and "Political Economy." The third class studied cultural affairs in general to develop cultural consciousness among the cadres. Last year more than 24,000 cadres attended 153 cultural centers which were established all over the province. Another class conducted was the illiteracy-elimination class, which taught many cadremen to read and write for the first time.

RECRUIT CADRES IN KUANG-CHOU -- Wen-hui Pao, 18 Jan 50

Meng-sheng District of Kuang-chou is now recruiting 100 young men 18 to 25 years old, to take a one-month training course to become cadres. After completion of the course, each new cadre will be assigned tasks most suited to his capabilities.
